ALTERNATE RETURNING FROM PELICAN

UNKNOWN CAN COLIN CAMPBELL
WHEELED SOUTH RESIGNS POSITION
SIDE BOAT OX CAR IN MANITOBA CABINET

Was Walking on Track to Avoid Switch Engine and Stepped in Front of Car.

A man about 45 years old, who has not yet been identified, was killed by a shunting C.P.R. box car near the C.P.R. station on the south side shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon. He was walking along the tracks and stepped from one track to another to avoid a switch engine to pass and stepped directly in front of the oncoming box car. The car passed completely over him, killing him instantly.

BADLY BURNED, MRS. ASHLEY IS BROUGHT TO CITY

Dress Catches Fire While Sitting Near Shack at Moose Portage.

To be so badly burned that for some time her life was in jeopardy, to undergo the most harrowing of experiences for three weeks and eventually die during that time without proper medical attention and then, when interviewed while lying in the hospital, to almost cheerfully say that it might have been worse, takes considerable pluck and grit, yet this is what has actually occurred in the case of Mrs. W. E. Ashley, the North Edmonton lady who was so badly burned at Moose Portage during October.

The unfortunate woman is now resting in the Royal Alexandra hospital where everything possible is being done to alleviate her sufferings. It was about three weeks ago that the unfortunate accident took place and it will be another month before the lady will be able to get around again.

Furness Liner Manchester Damaged by an Iceberg

Limps Into St. John's, Her Bow a Mass of Wreckage—Berg Loomed Up So Suddenly in Darkness There Was No Time to Change Course.

St. John, N.F., Nov. 4.—The Furness liner Manchester, which was damaged by a heavy sea and a mass of wreckage, limped into St. John's harbor today, her bow a mass of wreckage and her pumps racing madly to defeat the flood of water which poured in through the shattered hull.

Hon. W. H. Montague, Former Federal Minister of Agriculture Succeeds.

HAS BEEN MANY YEARS RESIDENT IN MANITOBA

Held Office Under Sir John Macdonald and Was One of the Most Eloquent Orators in That Party.

Winnipeg, Nov. 4.—Hon. Colin Campbell's resignation as minister of public works in the Manitoba cabinet was announced yesterday and the portfolio was at once offered to Hon. W. H. Montague. After some consideration Mr. Montague accepted and Sir Rodmond Roblin called later on the lieutenant-governor and received the custody of the portfolio. The new minister was sworn in this morning at 10 o'clock. The cabinet changes came as a complete surprise. Premier Roblin returned from the east yesterday morning. On his desk he found the resignation of Hon. Colin Campbell. Mr. Campbell wrote that he was rapidly improving and hoped to be able to return to his duties in the cabinet but that it was impossible to attend to the duties of his portfolio during the winter.

Mr. Montague has lived in Winnipeg many years. While here he has been engaged in the land and investment business. He was born in Adelaide township, Middlesex County, Ont. His father was one of 14 early settlers in Adelaide district. His mother was a daughter of John Humphries of the same district. He was educated in the public schools and afterwards at Woodstock college. Mr. Montague engaged in teaching for some time in both Middlesex and Norfolk counties and began his medical studies in 1875, graduating in 1882 at Victoria university and began teaching at a post-graduate course and the following year, 1883, he received his M.D. in the same year. First engaging in practice at Danville, Ont. he later, by invitation, took up professional work at Hamilton where he was appointed a member of the medical staff of the Victoria hospital.

For about 14 years, or from 1886 until 1900, he was in the employ of the Canadian government for Hamilton and was for some time minister without portfolio in the dominion of Ontario. Later he became secretary of state for Canada and afterwards minister of agriculture of the dominion of Ontario. His connection with the transportation system between Hamilton and Toronto has been an important one. He has been a member of the various other important organizations.

Flames had been extinguished she had to ride two miles in a wagon over a rough trail and one does not need to let one's imagination travel very far to understand the agony that the poor woman must have suffered during the journey. Arriving at the home of Mrs. Gerhart she received such medical attention as could be procured at the time.

Ship Has Hard Time.

The sea was swept by a heavy storm and the steamer had a hard time making port. Torrents of water poured into the hold through the shattered bow. The pumps, although constantly in operation, could scarcely hold their own. The ship reached here in a sinking condition. She was the worst wrecked ship that ever came to the harbor. Repairs will require about two months. The steamer carried 8,000 tons of general cargo. The lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and foodstuffs were on the deck above. Her crew consists of 10 officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,825 tons gross.

Gen. Felix Diaz Arrives at Havana on the Esperanza

United States Army Stores Smuggled Across Border to Mexican Rebels—Ambassadors Confer With Representative Lind.

Havana, Nov. 4.—General Felix Diaz, a fugitive from Mexico, arrived today aboard the Esperanza. He was transferred from the United States battleship Michigan to the Esperanza off the Mexican coast during rough weather in a life boat manned by a crew of 12. He was accompanied by Jose Bonifacio Sanchez, an attorney, and Cecilio L. Ocon, both of whom were also fugitives on the American warship. An American newspaper correspondent, Alexander J. Williams, was also with General Diaz at the time of his flight to the battleship Louisiana at Vera Cruz and was also aboard the Esperanza.

General Diaz expressed his appreciation of his treatment by Rear Admiral Fletcher. He looks to be in good health and displayed much interest in the fate of members of the special Mexican mission to Japan who were taken back to Mexico on the training ship Zaragoza, after having been first sent to Havana. This evening he visited General Del Rio, who was appointed to the commission but was permitted to land at Havana on account of illness.

U. S. Army Stores for Rebels.

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 4.—Three thousand cartridges were taken from army stores and smuggled across the Mexican border. They were abstracted from stores belonging to the cavalry. Federal agents who have been investigating jointly with army officers today declared the cartridges could not have been sent over the international line without the connivance of soldiers on patrol duty.

One of two answers—refused point blank to comply with the demand, possibly going so far as to hand the diplomatic representative his passports, or the elimination of himself officially. Those most intimate with the president intimate the latter will not be taken into consideration. It is not in doubt that the Washington administration favors the rebel cause and is convinced that this is the move adopted by President Wilson and Secretary Bryan to assist Carranza to win.

Summons Diplomatic.

General Huerta summoned to the national palace tonight the diplomatic corps, but for what purpose was not revealed. Three of the ministers those of Germany, Norway and Russia, were absent. They have been in Vera Cruz where they were in conference with President Wilson's representative, John Lind, who is understood to be fully conversant with the latest reports from Washington.

WINNIPEG VOTES MONEY BYLAWS OVER $2,000,000 OF APPROPRIATION.

Winnipeg, Nov. 4.—At the city council meeting last night, eight money by-laws totalling $2,000,000 were passed and will come before the ratepayers December 22. The by-laws are for power distribution, $1,000,000; schools, $1,000,000; general hospital, $375,000; municipal hospitals, $100,000; increase incinerator, $85,000; fire halls, $60,000; comfort stations, $50,000, and parks, $100,000.

SPRING-RICE MAY FIND RIGOR OF CLIMATE SEVERE

Friends Intimate Ambassador to Washington May Have to Retire.

London, Nov. 3.—According to the Daily Telegraph among the friends of Sir Cecil Spring-Rice there is considerable doubt as to whether in the near future he may find the rigor of the American climate too severe to permit him to continue his duties. "An affection of the throat is now his most serious preoccupation," adds the Telegraph. The Times in an editorial on the same subject says that while it is extremely regrettable that the ambassador was ill during the critical period there is no mystery. "It is difficult to understand, however, adds the paper, why the embassy was allowed to be understaffed while the ambassador was absent."

The Daily Mail thinks it extraordinary that at such a critical time the British public would be kept in ignorance of the ambassador's absence. Expressing hope of a speedy solution of the Mexican difficulty the Mail comments: "Whatever may be the diplomatic trouble between Washington and London, there is not the slightest doubt about the sentiments of the British public which desire no sacrifice of American goodwill on the question as to who will be president of Mexico." Tired Investigators Will Arrive in Edmonton Tonight

All Are Well and Glad to be Wending Their Way Homewards Clapp Report Found Utterly Unreliable—Flow Will Easily Reach Over 7,000,000 Feet Per Day

Post-tired, weary and some with sprained ankles, eleven men, for the first time in four days of investigation who started out on their trip to the gas fields of Pelican a week ago last Friday, arrived this morning at Athabasca Landing at 10 o'clock. They were first to get foot once more in investigation was the Capital staff reporter who accompanied the party. At Beet Creek the last stopping place of the party before reaching the Landing. He commended a horse and, galloping ahead, reached the ferry about 7 that morning. Having aroused the ferryman, he managed to cross the river and get into communication with the Capital editorial rooms by 8:30.

The story the Capital men told to over the long distance telephone moles the Leather Stocking tales and The Oregon Trail read like a report of the Ladies' Aid in comparison.

The party proper arrive at the Landing at 9 o'clock sharp this morning. Fortunately all are well, thanks to the professional and assiduous care of Alderman Del. Smith and the remarkable relief and care of Man-Williams, who seems to have provided everything for the convenience and comfort of the party from grape fruit to tooth picks.

The trip, in rather, like, from Athabasca. Here, for the first time in four days the party were enabled to enjoy a real rest. Boots and socks were removed, supper and tea was eaten, and then as all were determined to reach the Landing in time to catch the train for today for 231, Tuesday, the party under the guidance of manager Williams, started on the investigation. The two great objects of the trip, the gas wells, were inspected. The aldermen were very surprised at the remarkable development of Pelican camp life. The old government well came in for special attention. They found that this original well was still maintaining the same pressure as a year ago. In spite of the fact that ever since Driscoll was up a year ago, the well had been allowed to burn continuously from a two inch pipe, ending up a flame over 20 feet into the air. So warm has this immense flame kept the surrounding atmosphere that the gas and grain for several hundred feet around it has kept from freezing.

The aldermen are unanimous in admitting that Manager Williams has been absolutely magnificent in his management of the trip. In the words of one of the party, his remarks concerning Williams are "he has been a real find, and about all in with the exception of their worn-out shoes strings, was found impossible to proceed any further without a new pair of shoes. Some were lucky enough to find space on a trundle bed the rest considered themselves happy to have a real floor on which to extend their mud-stained and weary forms."

At 7:30 this morning the last lap was begun, and at 9 this morning the hubbub of the northern terminus of the trip was reached. The party, for eleven days had braved the terrors and the discomforts of back of the country that Edmonton might have seen.

No history of the "Retreat from Pelican" would be complete without reference to the remarkable speed with which a long and complete story of a week's travel, in a single day, had been accomplished. The party, for eleven days had braved the terrors and the discomforts of back of the country that Edmonton might have seen.

INQUEST AT REGINA

Regina, Nov. 4.—An inquest into the death of Robert Blakey, who was found dead on the C.P.R. track Saturday night, will take place Wednesday afternoon.

ORTIE MCMANICAL HAS BEEN REMOVED FROM LEAVENWORTH

Despicable Dynamiter changes Quarters—Reports of His Release Are Untrue.

Los Angeles, Nov. 4.—The departure from the county jail today of Ortie McManical, the dynamiter, whose confession added in sending the St. Norbert brothers to prison and 31 other union busters here to Leavenworth, has given rise to a report that he had been released. McManical left his cell at 2 o'clock today, but did not return at a late hour tonight. McManical, the detective who arrested McManical, and has been in constant communication with him since, could not be found tonight. District Attorney Fredericks has been informed on several occasions that McManical ultimately would be set at liberty, but the dynamiter's freedom had not yet been granted, but declined to say why he had been permitted to leave the jail.

EMPIRE'S NAVIES MUST CO-OPERATE SAYS FREMANTLE

When Britain Fights Dominion Must Be Fighting Also.
Also,
NEUTRALITY OF CANADA IMPRACTICABLE CHIMERA
British Admiral Writing in London Post Treats Lightly Difficulty of Combining Navies.

London, Nov. 4.—Admiral Fremantle writing on the naval question in the Morning Post, says he is disposed to treat lightly the alleged difficulty of a combination of Canadian and Australian squadrons in the war. The Australian navy at all events can be secured at an "in not navy" and is already a force to be reckoned with, but whether large or small, any squadron provided by dominions, born and bred as they would be in the traditions of the British navy could not be anxious to join in making one great imperial navy in case of war.

The centralist's idea that when Britain fights every dominion must be fighting too, is to the question of free choice for Britain, compulsory for the dominions the answer is "certainly," and Sir Wilfrid Laurier's tentative proposal for the neutrality of Canada under certain conditions is an impracticable chimera and the empire must "bear each other's burdens. Not only European complications but a fisheries or boundary dispute of Canada, or an Australian or New Zealand or Japanese trouble must concern the whole empire, whether federated or not. It is to suppose view to suppose that the difficulty is always a British one, as the South African war was, and made clear. "I believe that the point will become more evident as the question of union for defence is further studied," said the admiral, "we may have federation, representation co-operation or union but the empire must act in unison."
Our dominions beyond the seas have in mind the advantages of our dominions, our consuls and our money and they must share with us the disadvantages of the United Kingdom. Jealousy of position in close proximity to powerful neighbors with aims and ambitions which conflict with the interests of the British empire.

DIOCESAN SYNOD OF EDMONTON MEET NEXT WEEK

Newly Created Body Will Hold Its First Meeting on November 12.

Wednesday of next week bids fair to become a red letter day in the ecclesiastical history of the west. On that day will sit the first synod of the newly-created diocese of Edmonton. All concerned in the northern portion of this province were informed of the meeting by the following letter from the Venerable Archbishop Gray, of All Saints' church in this city:
"I am instructed by the bishop to inform you that the first meeting of the diocese of Edmonton will be held in Edmonton on Wednesday, November 12, for the purpose of adopting a constitution and completing the organization, at which time and place the clergy holding the bishop's license and lay delegates who have been and may be elected in the manner provided by the constitution of the undivided diocese of Calgary, are requested to be present. Between 60 and 70 delegates are expected to be present at the synod, which is to last two days. As well as the regular clergy there will, of course, be the lay delegates elected in the following manner: From congregations of six communicants and over, one delegate; over 10 and under 100, two delegates; over 100, three delegates.
The program of the synod's work, while not yet complete in all details, has been arranged and issued for Wednesday, the first day—8 a.m., Holy Communion in All Saints' church; 10 a.m., morning prayer, at which, in place of the sermon, the bishop, as president, will deliver his address. At the conclusion of the service the synod will assemble in the cathedral and hold its sessions with or without proceedings with according to rules, or as may be decided. Although Edmonton is to be in the future a bishop's see, and will doubtless some day be adorned by a cathedral, sufficient funds have not as yet been forthcoming to support the new dignity. The archbishop has consequently refused to sanction the election of a new bishop until he is assured that a sufficiently large endowment fund has been raised, the interest on which would be adequate to the proper support of a bishopric. The coming meeting will therefore most probably devote its most serious energies to the consideration of ways and means for raising the necessary endowment fund."

SHIP'S CARGO BURNS FOR SIX WEEKS; SHIP RUINED

Steamer Templemore Said by Underwriters Fit Only for Scrap
Hesp.
Boston, Nov. 4.—The fire which forced the abandonment of the steamer Templemore at sea, six weeks ago, was subdued yesterday, but in the option of the underwriters, the ship is fit only for the scrap heap. A small part of the cargo remains in the vessel's hold, but is believed to be without market value.
The Templemore was towed here two weeks ago by the revenue cutter Andromeda, which had picked her up off Nantucket.

MOVIE MANAGERS ARE NOT MEXICANS

Reputable Sentiments Attributed to Them in the Matter of Sunday Regulations.

John Hazza, manager of the Empress and Bijou theatres, stated today that he gave no authority for the statement published yesterday in the Capital to the effect that he or other managers intended defying the new ordinance requiring the closing of moving picture theatres on Sunday. "What do you think we are?" said Hazza, "Mexican Heleles? Think we are trying to start a revolution? I sent my theatres open Sunday because I considered that the new law had not become effective yet, as the licenses had not been issued by the government."

This appears to be the actual feeling which exists among the moving picture men throughout the city, who seem to have been considerably misrepresented by an over-enthusiastic reporter whose imagination he allowed to riot. The managers of the "movies" distinctly disavow any such insubordination or belligerency as was attributed to them and the Capital reports that they were no grossly misrepresented.

EXCELLENT SHOW AT THE ORPHEUM JASPER AVE. EAST

Polmatier Sisters Orchestra Pleased a Large Audience Last Night.

A large, well pleased crowd was in attendance last night at the Orpheum, Jasper East, to hear the Polmatier Sisters Orchestra. As musicians they are wonderful and compare well with any organization of this kind. They have been praised wherever they have played and well deserve all the good things that have been said about them. The entire orchestra consists of artists, each member being a musician of the highest class. The concert solo by Helene Polmatier, and the xylophone solo by Sam K. Polmatier, were heartily received and they had to play to several encores. An entire change of the musical program will be put on this evening and it will also be the last time to hear them.

The picture part of the program was well up to the standard and the feature film, "An Adventure on the Mexican Border," created a great interest. A laughable comedy "Just Kids" closes the performance. The feature for tomorrow night will be the Imperial Male Quartette. This is another exceptionally high-class attraction and should meet with the approval of the Orpheum patrons.

VAUDEVILLE AT EMPIRE THEATRE

Best Bill Yet Presented by the Orpheum Shows in Edmonton.

The best bill yet presented by the Orpheum Vaudeville was given last night at the Empire. The sketch entitled "The System" was exceedingly clever and kept the audience thrilling with excitement from start to finish. Taylor Granville acts very cleverly, as also does Maury Perpoint as Eddie Marshall. The last scene, when the villain, Tim Luggan, is trapped by means of a sound recording instrument, which has been placed in the room of Luggan and the Ed, by the police is tremendously exciting.

La Toy brothers do some amazing foot; Edna Munsey is certainly a beautiful girl. The piano playing "Freakish" of Kennedy and Mattie Rooney's dancing and comedy are very funny. The vocalizations of Marshall Montgomery are also wonderful. He talks and whistles while he eats and drinks and smokes a cigarette. Lyons and Yosco, who play the harp and cello and sing, are really enjoyable. Their voices are well blended and their songs are new and musical. Beaumont is a series of magnificent tableaux done most gracefully and artistically by Burdella Patterson, who was formerly an artist's model.

"GIRL O' THE WOODS" COMING TO THE MONARCH

Thursday Feature Film Will Re-introduce Miss Florence Lawrence of "Closed Door Fame."

Just two weeks ago the first Florence Lawrence picture, "The Closed Door," was presented at the Monarch and what a picture it was! As a domestic drama, as a struggle of sentiment, nothing has surpassed it ever. On Thursday the Monarch offers the second Florence Lawrence feature, "The Girl o' the Woods." It is different, yes, quite different, in theme and treatment. It is superior in dramatic climaxes and in its powers of suspense to "The Closed Door." Bruce Cameron, as the story goes, receives a letter from a prospective purchaser of wild lands that he has looked up the title to a tract of land in Tennessee, and has learned that squatters have settled upon it. Cameron sends his son, Hal, to look up the matter and elect the squatters if what is said is true. These squatters prove to be Dan and John Hawkins, young hunters, and their sister, Mab. Hal assures an order of eviction from this court and proceeds to the town-ship to give the warrant to the constable. The constable, in sympathy with the squatters, warns Hal that he will be shot if he attempts to carry out his purpose. The constable then proceeds to the squatters' place, and assures the two boys that if they kill Hal they will not be prosecuted.

she loves pictures. Laying down her gun she approaches. Hal is impressed with her calm, healthy and undisturbed face. They become better acquainted and he gives her a card. When she is gone, he decides it is too late to visit the squatters, unaware that she is one of them.

On the following day they meet again and the attraction awakens. Mab takes the card to the sheriff to learn the name upon it—she can neither read nor write. She learns that the man she loves is the man her brothers are afraid to meet.

Her brothers go running for Hal that day and Mab is resigned not to interfere. But her love triumphs and she sketches a warning on paper and fastens it to a tree at the trying place. He decides to go away. She manages to meet him and denounce him to her enemy and the enemy of her brothers. He declares his love and urges her to marry him. She refuses, and when he is gone the full realization of her hopeless plight comes upon her.

Returning home Hal persuades his father to send the Hawkins family a deed to the land. Later he receives a queer letter—an envelope is pinned the visiting card he gave Mab and girl holding out her arms to him. In on the paper is a drawing showing the woods he finds her full of life and ambition to reach a higher plane of living.

Washington, D.C., Nov. 4.—President Wilson left the Mexican situation some a few hours today while he went to Princeton, N.J., to vote. The tension over this government's ultimatum to Huerta was not relieved by the absence of the president, however, and just before Mr. Wilson left the white house he conferred with Secretary Bryan.

All officials here were consistently silent over the notice of Huerta's arrival. The provision of the Mexican constitution that the president be a native-born citizen was not a point of contention. The understanding was that the attitude here was to make no announcement just now and await the next step.

The greatest interest centered about Huerta's conference with the Mexican diplomatic corps. As secretary of state, Mr. Bryan had delivered the latest note. Huerta called on the ambassador, but no announcement was made of the conference.

President Wilson, planned to be in touch with the situation practically every hour he is away today, and return to Washington tonight. The president left here at 10 o'clock this morning expecting to arrive at Princeton at 2:30 this afternoon cast his ballot, leave Princeton at 4:20 and arrive back in the capital at 5:15 tonight.

No Comment.
Washington, D.C., Nov. 4.—Administration officials decline to comment one way or the other on the report from Mexico City regarding the resignation of a majority member in Huerta's cabinet. That this resignation of Huerta is a sign of weakness is admitted by the official principal of the administration, but beyond this the success of the resignation is not disclosed.

An air of confidence in official circles is taken to indicate that the United States is satisfied that practically all the great powers have agreed to support the administration policy at least to the extent of observing a strictly neutral attitude and allowing the United States to test its own plan for restoring peace in Mexico.

No Indication of Reply.
Mexico City, Nov. 4.—There was no indication here today that provisional President Huerta has yet delivered any reply to the communication from the United States government telling him he must resign the presidency within a few days, and that he must not leave his successor any of his adherents whom he might be able to control.

In official quarters here, as well as at the United States embassy, emphatic denials were still made today as to the occurrence in result of the communication from the American government.

A meeting of the Mexican cabinet, however was called for today at which it appeared probable that the matter would come up for discussion. The only reference to the incident in the local papers today was that which occurred in result of the communication from Washington. There, when shown to Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American charge d'affaires, brought out a denial word or less technical which was public in effect in connection with the dispute.

Bryan Talks and Said Nothing.
Later today Secretary Bryan issued a statement, he declined to discuss the issue of the word "chancellor" or "adviser." Saying he had no more to say than the statement itself contained. He made no reference to a rule never to discuss paper reports concerning international matters, but despatches from Mexico this morning suggest a departure from the rule at this time. No ultimatum has been sent to Mexico and it is information that the press should give credence to such a report. The harm done by speculation or even inaccuracies in regard to domestic questions in Mexico could cause the people are acquainted with the subject and can make allowances; but as mistakes in respect of international matters may lead to serious consequences it is felt that in making such a statement.

Discussion of the possibilities that President Wilson might again take the Mexican situation to congress in a personal address was revived in administration circles again today.

Mutual Employ Force.
The belief that the policy of President Wilson and Secretary Bryan in Mexico has resulted as was to be expected, is admitted by officials in connection with the Mexican situation, and has left the United States with no alternative except to employ force or to back down ingloriously.

The newspaper says it expects there will be speedy landing of troops at Vera Cruz but it fears that President Wilson underestimates the military difficulties in Mexico.

The belief that the policy of President Wilson was a mistake is also expressed by this newspaper which says that while General Huerta may be an unsympathetic personality yet he is the strong man whom Mexico needs.

The belief that the establishment of opinion by competent observers, it is believed that Huerta has been informed that practically all the powers diplomatically represented in the Mexican capital are disposed to deliver the United States in the task of restoring constitutional government. Such a statement would be collated, accompanied by a pointed inquiry framed to develop Huerta's intentions.

It is believed that the latest note may not disclose the purpose of the United States in the event that Huerta's answer was not satisfactory as such a decision would mark practically the last step phase in negotiations. Huerta's conference with the resident members of the diplomatic body is taken to bear out that theory. The opinion here is that it would naturally follow that the De Facto president would call upon the diplomats to make sure the position of their governments had been corrected.

replied stated and that they were aligned with the United States.

Situation Near Conclusion.
Secretary Bryan fully refused to discuss the situation when inquiries were made concerning the demand for the immediate retirement of Huerta. Senator Bacon, chairman of the foreign relations committee after a conference with Secretary Bryan, said: "I consider the situation to be nearer a conclusion, we are very hopeful that things will turn out well."

Secretary Daniels reiterated today the three battalions of the Second Division of the Atlantic fleet will remain in Mexico Gulf waters until further orders, notwithstanding that four battalions of the Third Division are due at Vera Cruz and Tampico tomorrow.

Rear-Admiral Fletcher, commanding the second division will take command of the entire squadron. The New Hampshire and Nebraska will keep station at Tampico, while the Louisiana and New Jersey, will await developments off Vera Cruz. In addition to the seven dreadnoughts, the gunboats West Virginia and the cruiser Tacoma are off Vera Cruz, while the gunboats Petrel and Nashville are in Dominican waters not far away. On the west coast the armored cruisers, California and Maryland are at Guaymas and Mazatlan, respectively. The gunboat Annapolis also is at Guaymas and the armored cruiser Pittsburg is enroute to that port.

SEPARATE SCHOOL BARS INSPECTOR

Bilingual Question Continues to Cause Trouble in Ottawa Schools.

Ottawa, Nov. 4.—A keen interest continues to be taken in Ottawa and district in the bilingual school question. What is now spoken of as the Garneau incident which occurred some 10 days ago, when the employ force of a new separate school walked out rather than submit to having their inspection in the English language was not the first of its kind which happened during the past month. It is understood that Inspector Summerville was actually refused admittance to separate schools Nos. 11 and 12 at Lennox, in Peel county and furthermore that the inspectors at the same time informed by one of the trustees with whom he wished to speak, that in the latter would have been all to do with any English inspector, and refused to listen to him. This incident is the most recent previous to the walk out in the Garneau school and has been reported to the board of education. It is said by the result of a circular letter from the Ottawa board in which the trustees were requested not to allow carrying out of regulations No. 17.
